The company claims the right to manufacture bear containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol unless it is expressly prohibited from doing so by State law. The complaint also alleges that the prohibition act is unconstitutional because it deprives the corporation of its liberty and property without due process of law.

Its business, the complainant states, due to the lack of a demand for a beverage so mild that it contains less than one-half of 1 per cent. alcohol, has been falling off so rapidly that it is only a question of a short time when its volume will be altogether insignificant.

An indictment against Joseph Solovei, Assistant Corporation Counsel, who was suppended from office last week pending investigation of charges against him, was returned by the Federal Grand Jury yesterday. Solovei is accussed of having offered a $500 bribe to a prohibition agent in an attempt to have him drop a case.

The Federal agent is Frank J. Selb. After the arreset by Selb of Benjamin Gross, a liquor dealer. Solovei and a guestion of a short time when its volume will be altogether insignificant.

LIQUOR BRIBE CHARGE

the State liquor tax law, by means of which it is hoped to enlist police aid in the enforcement of prohibition, was dismased for lack of evidence by Magistrato Joseph S. Schwab in the Jefferson Market court.

John J. Morman, cashier of a saloon at 393 Sixth avenue, was charged by Detectives Sheehan and De Luca of the Second Inspection district with the sale of two drinks of whiskey at 50 cents each. The detectives took a val, which they said contained the liquor, to the office of Dr. E. J. Kelly, city chemiat, who testified that he found it contained 23 per cent. of alcohol. Counsel for the defence moved to dismiss the complaint because the vial had passed through several hands before it reached Dr. Kelly, and Magistrate Schwab sugtained the motion.
